IN THE COEUR D'ALENE-SPOKANE RIVER BASIN ADJUDICATION
BASIN 95, PART 2

INTRODUCTION

One claim to a federal reserved water rights for stockwater has been filed in Basin 95, Part 2, by the United States of America, on behalf of the Bureau of Land Management with the Coeur d'Alene-Spokane River Basin Adjudication (CSRBA) District Court.

The number for the federal reserved water right claim is 95-16545.

Why am I getting this mailing?

You are receiving this mailing because you filed one or more claims in the CSRBA which may be affected by the federal reserved claim which has been submitted to the CSRBA Court. IDWR does not investigate or make recommendations for water right claims based on federal law. This is your opportunity to review the federal reserved claim for any possible impact to your water right claims. The claim is available at the CSRBA courthouse in Twin Falls and at the locations listed at the end of this notice.

Additional copies of the complete report can be made, but you may be charged for copying and mailing. The complete report can also be downloaded from the CSRBA web-site at: www.csrba.idaho.gov. Maps of the reporting area, as well as other information pertaining to the CSRBA, can be accessed on the internet (see enclosed "Water Right Research Using IDWR Internet Tools").

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TAKING A CLAIM TO COURT

What do I do if I disagree with a federal reserved water right claim?

If you disagree with any element of the claim to the federal reserved water right in Basin 95, Part 2, and want to be heard in court, file an objection with the CSRBA Court. What happens if I file an objection to a federal reserved water right claim?

If an objection to the federal reserved water right claim is filed, the claimant may, but is not required to, file a response to the objection with the CSRBA District Court. Other parties may file a response to your objection, too. Any response must be made on the standard response form ("Standard Form 2") available from any IDWR office or from the CSRBA Court. Standard Form 2 may also be downloaded from the CSRBA web-site at: www.csrba.idaho.gov. The response must be received by the CSRBA Court on or before Friday, August 30, 2019. A copy of the response must be mailed to the objector to the water right, the claimant of the water right (if different from the objector), and the Director of IDWR.

Can I participate in proceedings on an objection filed by someone else to a federal reserved water right claim?

If you wish to participate in proceedings on an objection filed by someone else to a federal reserved water right claim, file a response to that objection. As noted above, responses must be made on Standard Form 2 available from any IDWR office or from the CSRBA Court. Standard Form 2 may also be downloaded from the CSRBA web-site at: www.csrba.idaho.gov. The response must be received by the CSRBA Court on or before Friday, August 30, 2019. A copy of the response must be mailed to the objector to the water right, the claimant of the water right (if different from the objector), and the Director of IDWR.

What do I do if I want to participate in the court case on a claim to a federal reserved right?

If you want to be involved in the court case on a claim to a federal reserved right, you must file either an objection or a response by the dates provided in this notice.

What happens if there are no objections to the federal reserved water right claim?

If no objections are filed, an evidentiary hearing on the uncontested federal reserved water right claim in Basin 95, Part 2 will be held. A partial decree will be issued following this hearing.

How will I know about the proceedings on the claim to a federal reserved water right to which objections were filed?

A notice will be mailed to you for court dates on the federal reserved claim if you filed an objection or a response. You will not receive notice of court dates on any claim to a federal reserved right for which you did not file an objection or a response. Additional information regarding federal reserved water right claims can be found on the CSRBA web-site at: www.csrba.idaho.gov.

Note: The CSRBA Court publishes a monthly Docket Sheet listing all objections and responses filed, as well as when Director's Reports are filed. It does not list court dates for individual water right cases, but provides general information helpful to all participants in the CSRBA.

The Docket Sheet is available at your county courthouse and all IDWR offices, or you may subscribe by contacting the CSRBA Court or IDWR. The annual subscription fee is $7.50. The Docket Sheet is also available on the CSRBA web-site at: www.csrba.idaho.gov.

The register of action for each water right claim can be found on the CSRBA web-site at www.csrba.idaho.gov. The register of action includes links for viewing and/or downloading the documents identified in the register of action.

DEFINITIONS OF THE ELEMENTS OF A WATER RIGHT

RIGHT NUMBER: Your water right is identified by a number assigned by IDWR. The first two digits identify IDWR's administrative basin number; for example, 91, 92, 93, 94, or 95.

NAME AND ADDRESS: Your name and address should appear here. IDWR will use the most recent name and address in its records for the water right.

SOURCE: The name and/or type of the source where you divert your water. For example: "ground water," "unnamed spring," or "Common Creek."

QUANTITY: The amount of water recommended in either cubic feet per second (cfs) and/or the volume of water in acre feet per year (AFY).

PRIORITY DATE: The date used to determine the priority of your right in relation to other rights using water from the same source.

POINT OF DIVERSION: The legal location where you divert water from its source; generally described as 1/4 1/4 sections down to a 40-acre tract, or smaller. Other legal descriptions that might be used are government lots, block, subdivision, parcel numbers, townsite names, mining claim information, homestead entry surveys, or other survey information.

PURPOSE OF USE: The general category of the type of use you can make of your water. Typical purposes of use include irrigation, domestic, or stock watering.

PERIOD OF USE: The period of time during the year when you can use the water for your right.

PLACE OF USE: The legal location where you use your water right; generally described as 1/4 1/4 sections down to a 40-acre tract. Other legal descriptions that might be used are government lots, block, subdivision, parcel numbers, townsite names, mining claim information, homestead entry surveys, or other survey information.

BASIS OF CLAIM: The method that was used to establish your claim. Examples include prior decree, posted notice, beneficial use (historical) method, license, or permit.

IDWR does not investigate or make recommendations regarding federal law based claims.
